Facilitated Online Courses

Effective Teaching for Adult Educators

This course provides a framework for teachers to reflect on their own teaching and to identify areas on which they would like to focus and where they would like to improve their practice.

Dates: September 28 - October 25, 2026. Visit <https://bit.ly/4he6ud1> for more information.

Supporting Immigrant Integration through Civics Education

Participants will be able to locate and adapt Teaching Skills That Matter lesson materials on Civics Education topics in order to support immigrant students at all levels of ESL to become successful members of their communities.

Dates: October 5 - November 1, 2026. Visit <https://bit.ly/4hOdddN> for more information.

Using Questioning Strategies to Improve Instruction

This online professional learning opportunity is intended to encourage instructors to ask questions that promote learners' thinking beyond the level of recall of information and that allow learners to adequately process information and respond to the instructors' requests. Dates: October 26 - November 22, 2026. Visit <https://bit.ly/4fCGrLI> for more information.

Communities of Practice

Multilevel and Differentiated Instruction to Support All Learners (Hacienda La Puente Adult Education)

It can be challenging for instructors to provide level-appropriate, engaging instruction for all students in a multilevel class. Through this 3-hour workshop, participants will gain evidence-based strategies for students with various goals and learning needs. Date: September 24, 2026. Visit <https://bit.ly/4qU666a> for more information.
